My favourite type of books to read are Murder Mysteries because I love the tension the authors build up and how they crack the case.

It's about a girls called Sophie and she works in a department store in London and one of the stores priceless objects is stolen, so Sophie and her friends try to solve the mystery.

I would definitely recommend this book to other murder mystery readers.

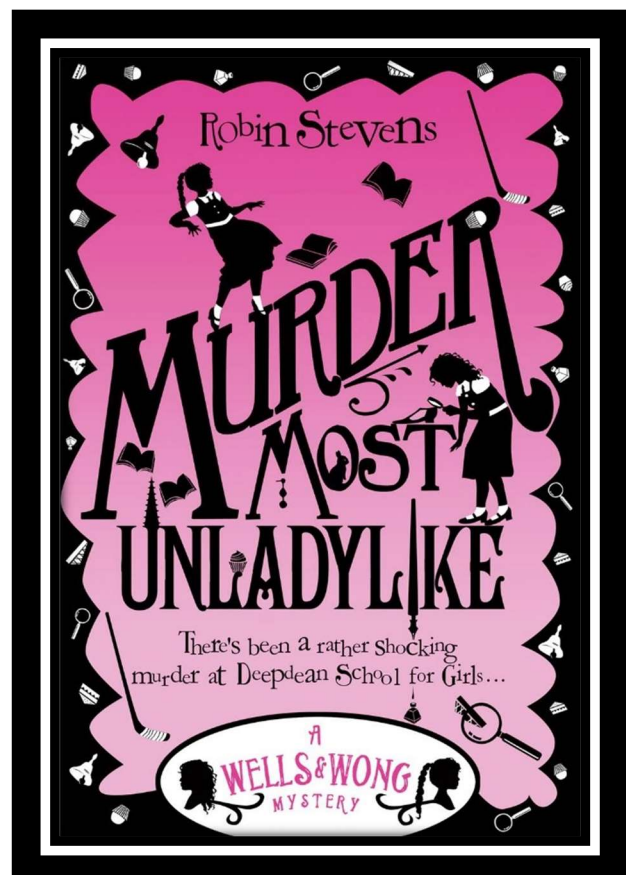

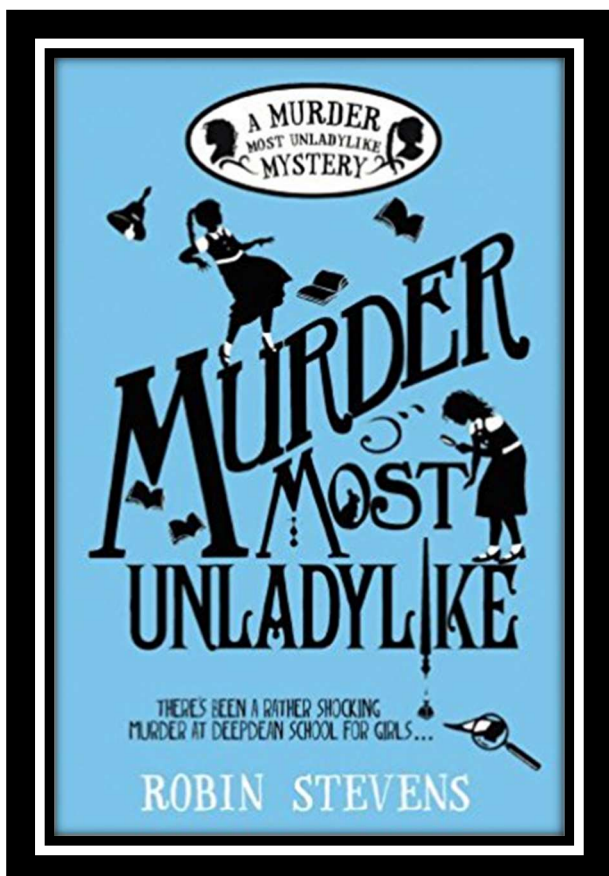

My favourite book is

'The Clockwork Sparrow' by Katherine Woodfine

My book recommendation is one of my absolute favourite murder mystery series. The full series is called Murder Most Unladylike Mysteries, the best place to start would be either the first book or the Christmas special (I must say, it was so good that I considered writing a full review!). This book follows the adventures of The Honourable Daisy Wells and Hazel Wong, two girls who have formed a detective society in Deepen, their school. They can't find a good mystery to attempt to solve but when Hazel finds their teachers body in the PE hall things go into a downward spiral as our two heroines realise it wasn't an accident. This book is set in the 1930's and I think it is very good at appearing light-hearted and like a children's book yet perfecting the dark undertone of the time. This book has a couple of surprising plot twists and turns - which I won't spoil for you here and I hugely suggest that you go and read this series right now, I urge you to its so fantastic!

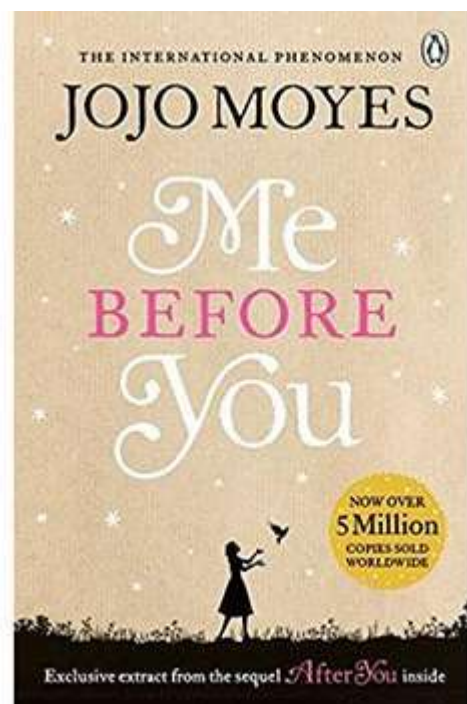

Some books I love!

One of my favourite books is Michael Morpurgo - Cool, I love this book because it's about a man who gets hit by a car and gets put in a corner and is remembering all the good times with his dog and when the hospital lets the dog say goodbye the dog licks the boy and wakes him.

Another one of my favourite books is 'Me Before You'. I love this book because it's about a man who gets hit by a car and becomes disabled and a woman who gets fired from her job ends up caring for him and they fall in love. Personally I believe the book is a million times better than the film!

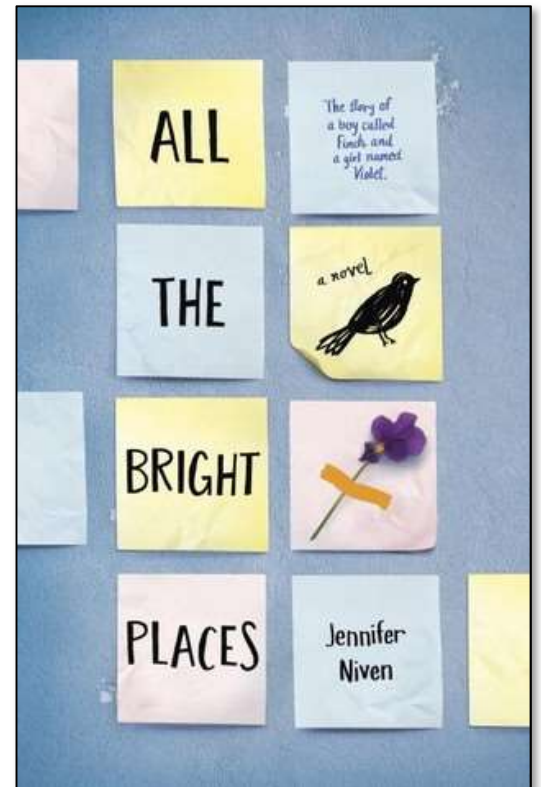

By Amy M - Year 8

My book recommendations

By Eve C.J - Year 13

All the Bright Places by Jennifer Niven

It's about two people in school who are in complete different groups but the girl who learns to live from a boy who has dark thoughts!

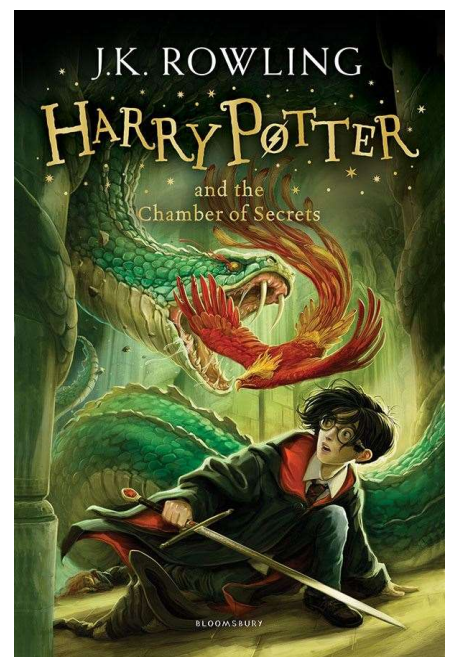

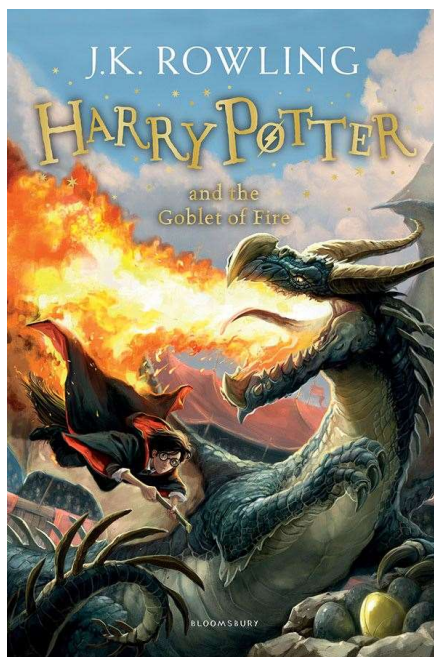

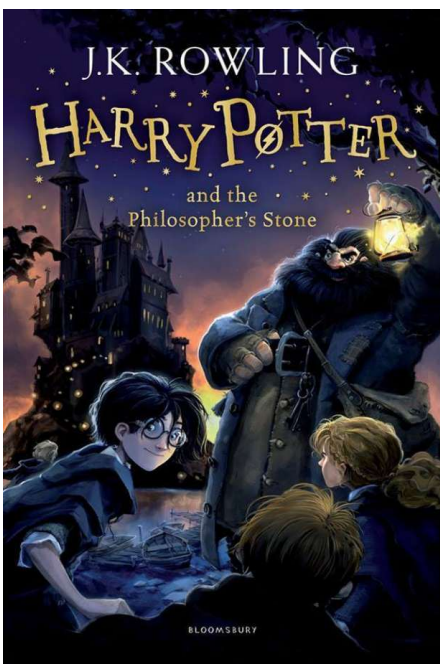

Everything, Everything by Nicola Yoon

This book is about a girl who has a disease and can't leave her house, but when she gets a new neighbour she becomes fascinated in knowing him.

My book recommendations

By Olivia S - Year 13

I love the Harry Potter series by J K Rowling, I know shocker, but I adore it simply because it is an escape from every day, mundane life and is it just an amazing story. It is my all-time favourite and it's something you can easily sink your teeth into.

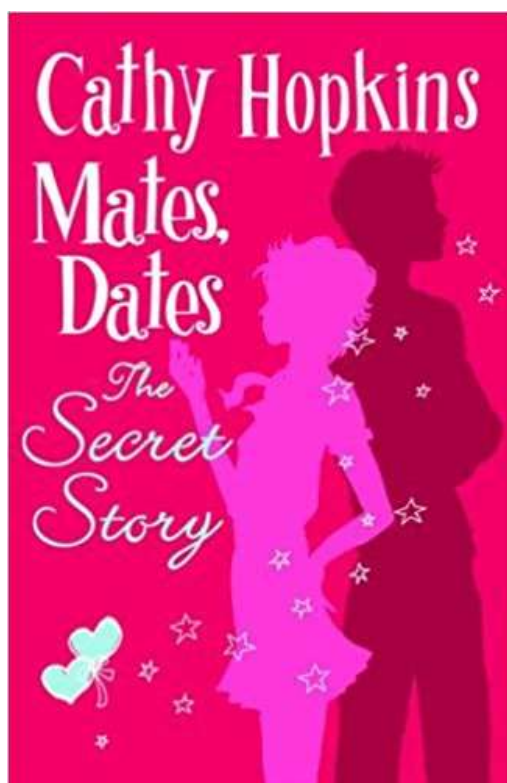

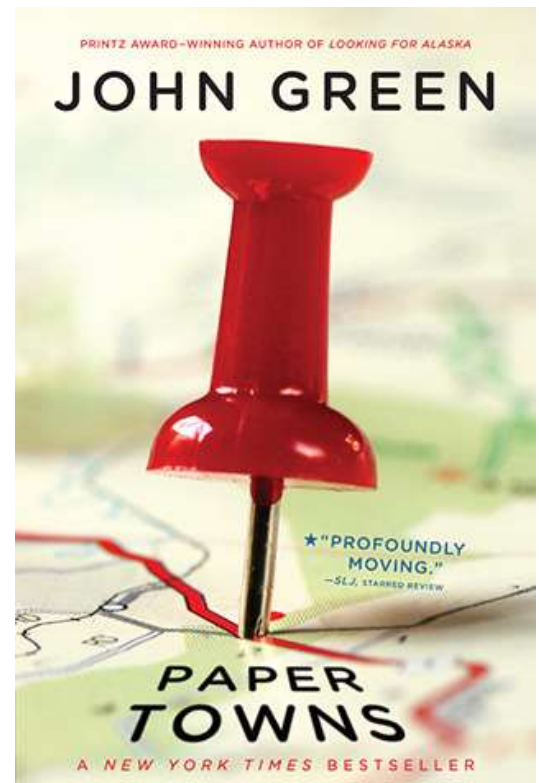

Another book I love is

The Yard by Alex Grecian.

This is a book if you love thrillers, with a complex story about a serial killer in Victorian England, brilliant. It's not that scary but I would recommend you to be over maybe 14- 15 because it has mature references.

Another one is, Paper Towns by John Green. Really amazing, it focuses on the disappearance of wild teenage girl, but while it is incredibly funny a lot of the time it does have a lot of oddly depressing notes in it that not only do you think about but you start to love the characters even more so because of it.

However for young readers I would recommend the, Mates and Dates collection by Cathy Hopkins. Really relatable and brilliantly funny a huge amount of girls will enjoy these short stories
