

Are you a good listener?

Are you a good communicator?

Are you a good team player?

Liverpool Young Advisors

Are you confident? Do you want to make a difference? Interested in people?

IF SO, WE WANT YOU NOW!

Are you a young person aged 15-24 and interested in issues that affect young people in your community/ city?

Young advisors will engage other young people to promote their voice in the city around issues that matter. This will be fed back to services to better inform their plans/ delivery.

You will:

- Receive Training
- Gain professional development
- Have some flexibility in working hours
- Get paid for the hours worked

No qualifications needed!

If you think that this is the right role for you, please complete & return application form to:

Jacquelyn.taylor@liverpool.gov.uk

All applications must be returned by closing date –

Monday 12th December 2016

Interviews will take place Tuesday 3rd January 2017 at Job Bank, details will follow if successful

Targeted Services For Young People
Positive about Communities

young advisors