Broughton Hall Catholic High School is seeking an inspirational and strategic Behaviour & Inclusion Officer to support students who struggle to access mainstream education. This is an exciting opportunity to help shape and deliver a holistic programme that blends academic challenge with personal development, rooted in trauma-informed and relational practice.

You will work proactively with students who experience barriers to learning due to social, emotional or behavioural needs to deliver targeted one to one support and small group interventions.

What We Are Looking For:

- A passionate practitioner with experience supporting students with SEMH and behavioural needs
- A confident communicator who can build strong partnerships with families and external agencies
- You will play a key role within the Behaviour & Inclusion Centre by delivering a structured therapeutic and trauma-informed approach to behaviour support.

In Return, We Offer:

- The chance to help shape a brand-new, high-impact provision
- A supportive, values-driven school community
- Access to CPD, leadership support, and professional growth opportunities
- A genuine opportunity to make a difference in the lives of our most vulnerable learners

How to Apply: Completed applications should be submitted outlining how your experience and vision align with this role. Please complete the school's Application Pack and email to recruitment@broughtonhall.com

Broughton Hall Catholic High School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and we expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment to keeping children safe.
