

KS3

Year 7

Trash Andy Mulligan

Study of Andy Mulligan's novel; Focus points include analysis of language, structure, character and theme.

Trash Andy Mulligan

Year 7 will undertake the Faster Reading approach to this novel in the opening six weeks of term, with two hours a week dedicated to reading.

Trash Andy Mulligan

The subject matter and content of the novel offers a fantastic opportunity to add to students' knowledge of life in developing countries.

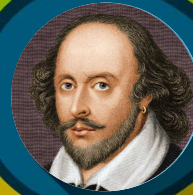

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Term Two in Y7 sees students' first engagement with The Bard at Broughton as they embark on their study of Shakespeare's comedy 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'.

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Students will revisit and build upon their contextual understanding of Shakespearean England.

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Study of the play will allow students to build an appreciation of Shakespeare's use of form/structure/language which will be invaluable as they continue on their academic journey.

Exploring difference through poetry

The final term of Year 7 sees students build upon their understanding of the theme of difference through poetry exploration.

Exploring difference through poetry

Students continue their development of analytical skills, as well as building on descriptive writing skills from the previous term.

Exploring difference through poetry

The module also helps to develop an appreciation of poetic form and structure. The cross-culture approach of this module allows for students to build on their understanding of global identity.
