Mission Statement

Broughton Hall Catholic High School, founded by the sisters of Mercy, empowers our Catholic family to flourish through faith, hope and love.

Aims for our community

To recognise, nurture and celebrate the potential of each individual. To foster a caring, joyful and purposeful community in which all work hard whilst being accepting of others.

To achieve excellence through an education which: is concerned with the whole person; enables each person to develop spiritually, vocationally, physically, academically

To foster a strong sense of community through our Mercy Values:

*Learning, Acceptance, Resilience
Community, Environment, Generosity
Sincerity, Service, Forgiveness*

Objectives

To ensure that school policies and documents are rooted in these aims and reflect our Mercy Values

To provide a curriculum and teaching strategies which ensure pupils of differing needs can learn to their full potential

To promote a welcoming, safe, attractive environment

To promote an awareness of equal opportunities, social justice, peace and global issues and apply their Mercy Values to these

To strengthen the partnership of staff and pupils with parents, governors, parishes and local community, united in a common purpose.

School and parents have to work closely together in partnership so that all our students achieve at the highest possible level and leave school as well-rounded young adults.

HOME-SCHOOL AGREEMENT

The school will aim to:

- provide a safe, happy and caring environment which reflects the Catholic ethos of the school through high expectations and consistent application of the school rules.
- treat all students with fairness and consistency; offering support, guidance and care.
- offer opportunities for prayer, worship, and service within the school and wider community.
- develop the full potential of all students spiritually, morally, culturally and socially.
- provide a curriculum that not only meets the statutory requirements but also considers the individual needs of the student, ensuring lessons are appropriately engaging and challenging so that all students make as much progress as possible.
- build effective relationships which promote good behaviour and a sense of responsibility and belonging across the school community.
- take pride in and celebrate all students' efforts and achievements, encouraging all to aim high and have aspiration.
- communicate with parents/carers and keep them informed of their child's progress.
- let parents/carers know of any concerns or problems that affect their child's progress or behaviour.
- offer opportunities for parents/carers to become involved in the daily life of the school.

As a parent/carers, I/we will:

- support the Catholic ethos, mission, and Mercy values of the school.
- ensure that my/our child attends school regularly, arrives no later than 8.30am, and understands that the minimum target for attendance is 97%
- maintain high expectations for my/our child's behaviour, dress, and effort in line with school policies.
- guarantee that my/our child attends school in full school uniform, with the correct equipment (pen, pencil, ruler, glue, highlighter, and PE kit etc).
- support the school rules and expectations outlined in the behaviour policy, which have been set for the benefit of all students, including adhering to our mobile phone policy.
- take an active interest in my/our child's education, homework, and wider school life.
- encourage my/our child to be ambitious and to work as hard as they can, both in school and at home.
- attend parents' evenings, meetings, and other events to engage with my/our child's education.
- communicate promptly with the school regarding any issues affecting my/our child.
- show respect and civility in any verbal or written communication with the school.
- promote and model respectful attitudes towards staff, students, and the wider school community.

As a Broughton Hall student, I will:

- act at all times in a way that reflects our Catholic ethos and Mercy values of Learning, Acceptance, Resilience, Community, Environment, Generosity, Sincerity, Service and Forgiveness.
- strive for excellence in all aspects of school life.
- attend school every day, arrive on by 8:30am, and be punctual for lessons.
- attend school in full school uniform, with the correct equipment (pen, pencil, ruler, glue, highlighter, and PE kit etc)
- complete all work and homework on time and to the best of my ability.
- participate fully in school life, including worship, service opportunities, and enrichment activities.
- be ambitious; work hard and take pride in everything I do so that I fully utilise my God-given talents.
- value all members of the school community, treating everyone with respect and kindness.
- take responsibility for my own behaviour and learning.
- follow the school rules outlined in the behaviour policy, which have been set for the benefit of all, including adhering to the mobile phone policy.
- Accept the consequences or sanctions issued when I do not adhere the school rules.

As a part of the Broughton Hall Catholic High School community, we agree to uphold this Home-School Agreement.
